

Dr. John Grossomanides of Westerly, RI is Register Pharmacist who currently is the Director of Pharmacy Operations at Pequot Health Care at Mashantucket, CT. He is married to Anna-Helene (Panagakos) of Brooklyn, NY and is the son of John G. and Celia Grossomanides of Westerly, RI. John is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy earning both his bachelor degree and his doctor from that institution. He has been active in the state pharmacist's association, Order of AHEPA (American Hellenic Progressive Association), and the AHEPA 110 Senior Housing Program. John served as the Supreme President of the AHEPA from 2011-2013, the highest office in the organization on the international level. John was elevated to Archon of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in April 2012 by his All-Holiness Bartholomew in Constantinople on Holy Saturday at the Small Anastasi service. Moreover, he is a 2006 award recipient of the Metropolis of Boston Laity Award, which he received with his father John G. Grossomanides. Additionally, he has been on the Holy Trinity Parish Council for the past seven years serving as Treasurer for the last six years. Most recently, he was elected as the Parish Council President and serves on the Holy Trinity Endowment Fund committee.